Planethard band is an Italian alternative rock band originally born as hard rock cover band. During their early years Planethard immediately started touring the best clubs of Northern Italy playing songs from Bon Jovi, G'n'R, Skid Row, Motley Crue, Steelheart, etc.

At the same time they started working on their first EP entitled "So Good". In the following years, thanks to EP good success, the band played in some important events such as Gotthard's new album Lipservice release party at Inkubo caffè in Milan.

Planethard started getting credit in Italian rock scene playing on important stages like Alcatraz, Transilvania Live and Indian's Saloon and above all in national and international events like "Venece Rock Festival" (with Motorhead, Gotthard & Labyrinth) and Tim Tour in Plebiscito Square in Naples (with Francesco Renga & Elisa).

While touring they went on writing original hard rock songs for their first full length album "Crashed on Planethard" with a typical hardrock sound. The new album was presented to Italian press at Solid Groove Studio in Ghiaie di Bonate Sopra becoming a great success thanks to its classic hard rock sound.

"Rock Sound" magazine dedicated a full article to the band pointing out the great artistic quality of the album

Thanks to the success of the album, Planethard started playing in important rock events such as:

- opening act for Europe (January 23rd 2007, Alcatraz Milan)
- Gods of Metal (June 2nd 2007) sharing the stage with Motley Crue, Scorpions, Thin Lizzy and Velvet Revolver
- headliner at Metal Disorder (September 19th 2008)

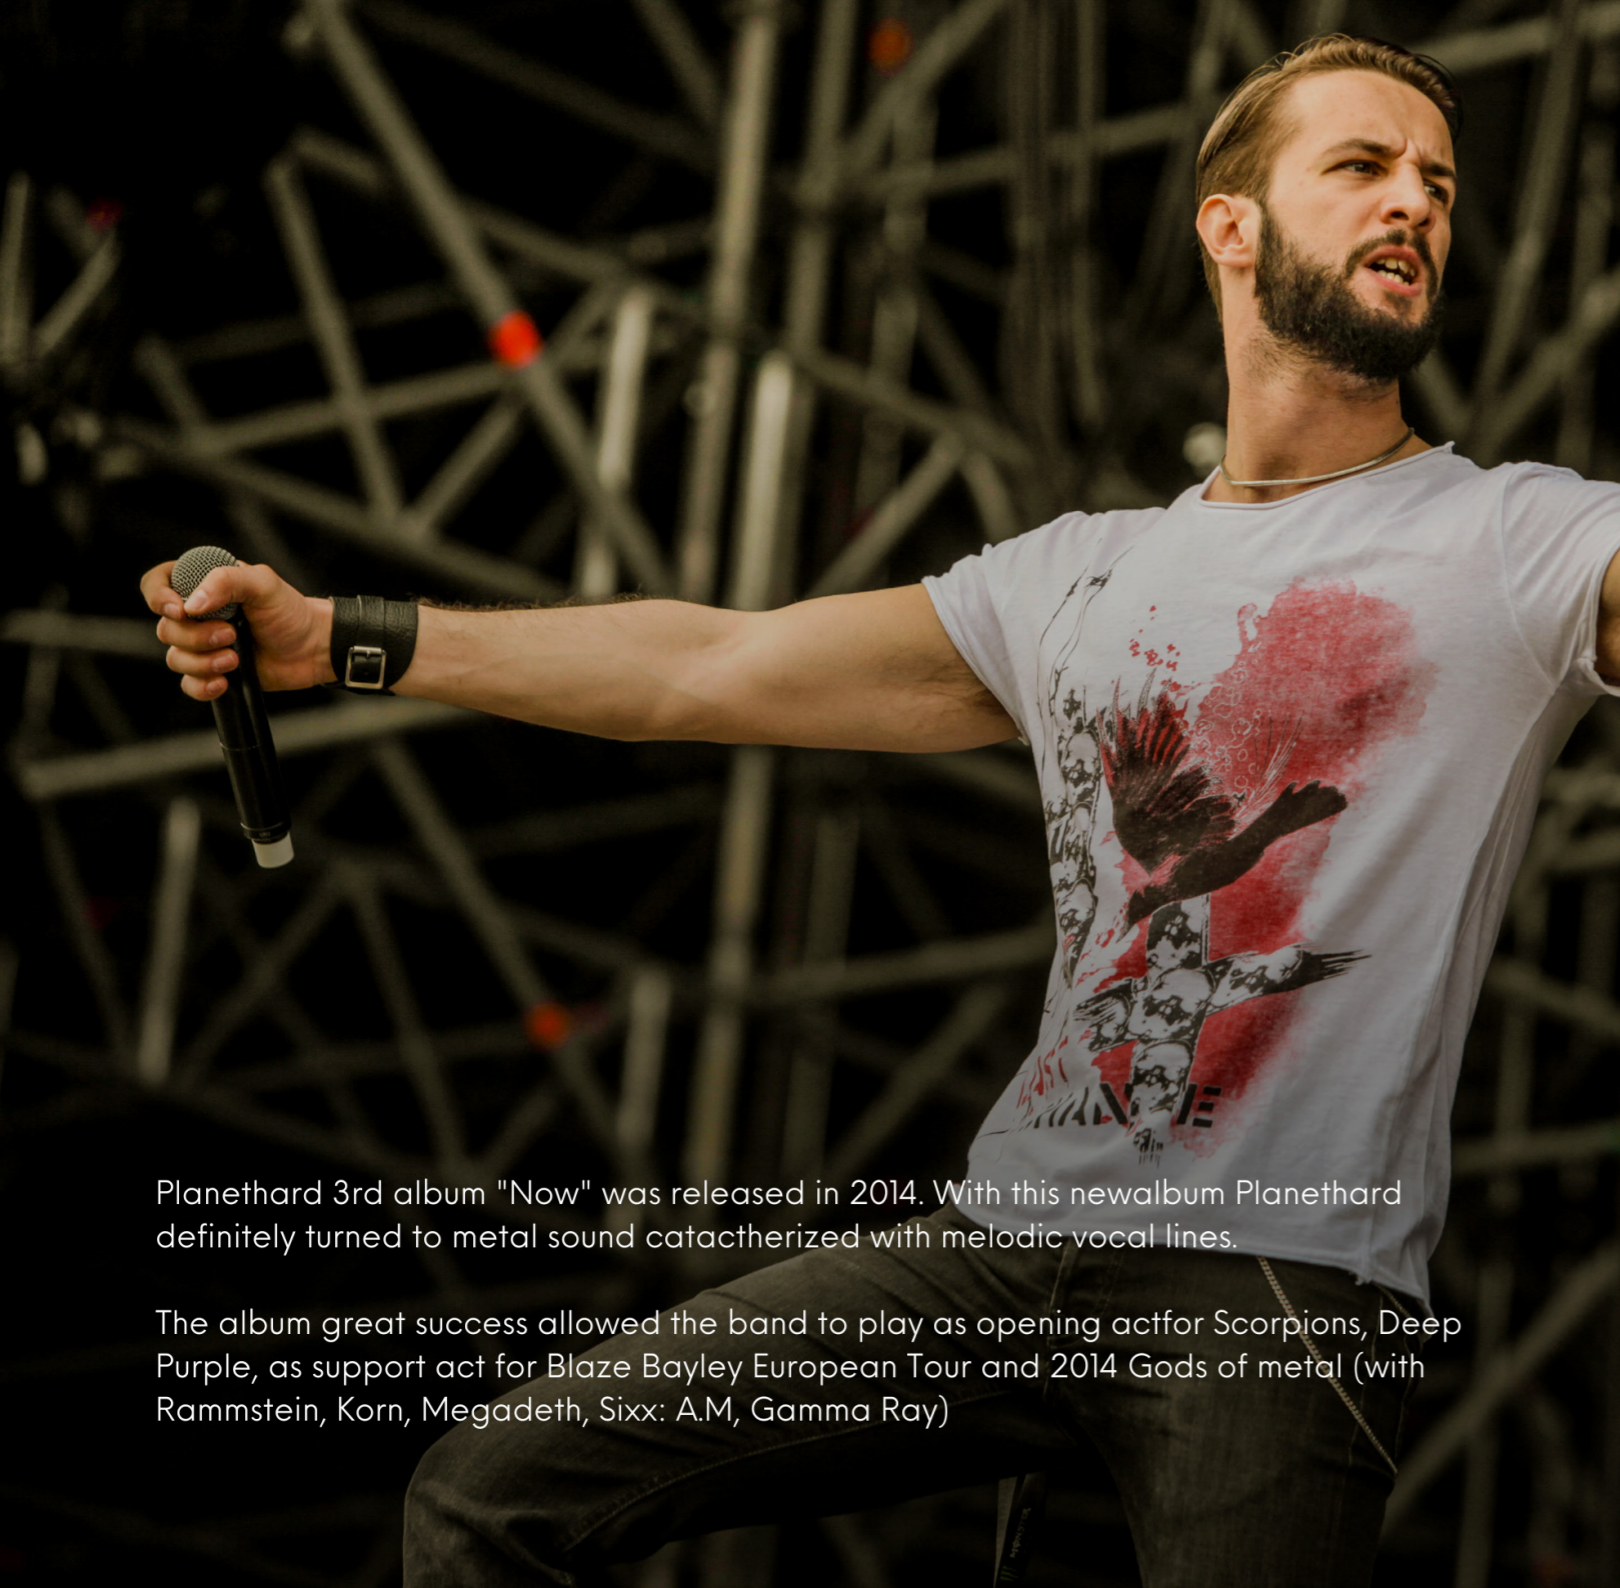

Despite the frequent live events, (for a complete list please refer to Highlights section), Planethard never stopped working on new songs.

The new material gave rise to the band's second full album "No Deal". For this new album the band decided to rely on "NOIZE FACTORY / COMMAND" and "UNIVERSAL MASTERING STUDIOS" (Los Angeles, California) for mixing and mastering. Differently from the previous album, "No Deal", the band's sound turned to a more metal one.

The album track ABUSE included Masha Mysmane (Exilia's singer) as special Guest.

After "No Deal" release, Planethard immediately started playing the new album on important events such as 2012 Gods of Metal (with Motley Crue, Slash & Myles Kennedy, The Darkness, Gotthard, Hardcore Superstar) and opening act for Gotthard

Planethard 3rd album "Now" was released in 2014. With this new album Planethard definitely turned to metal sound characterized with melodic vocal lines.

The album's great success allowed the band to play as an opening act for Scorpions, Deep Purple, as a support act for Blaze Bayley European Tour and 2014 Gods of Metal (with Rammstein, Korn, Megadeth, Sixx: A.M., Gamma Ray).

During the last 18 months, due to the COVID-19 emergency, the band put live activities on hold, dedicating time to the fourth album's composition.

The new album, entitled "Equilibrium", is currently under finalization and represents a further step in Planethard's sound evolution, adding progressive parts to the typical metal sound.

Crashed on Planethard

Like a journey, we are arrived at our destination brought our music with us. Ready to hear it?

No Deal

You have to be free to be yourself, never be satisfied, or unnecessary compromises ...

Now

Live the moment, as wise once said: "Carpe Diem," "Il Quit et Ora". Live in the present, looking to the future and making experience from the past.

Equilibrium

We live in a world where there is a continuous balance between dreams and reality, joy and pain, love and hate. The period of the pandemic reminded us this again.

PLANETHARD

The album cover for Planethard's 'No Deal' depicts a man with grey hair and a beard, shirtless, sitting on a white sink in a severely damaged bathroom. The walls are covered in green tiles, many of which are missing, revealing red brick underneath. Debris is scattered on the floor, and a toilet is visible to the right. The overall atmosphere is one of desolation and decay.
